

Peaches And Caroline

The Band Perry

This Georgia highway is crowded with break lights
And I'm here tonight
But I'm driving fast
In my mind
Cherry cheeks despite this sour life I'm alright
And everyone wonders why

Oh

Would you repaint the picture?
You make everything in this sun kissed instead of bitter

Sweet, when I walk with you, and your hand's holding mine
You're so sweet
The troubles of the day fade away
To peaches and Caroline

I just can't help the way you make me smile
In a world of frowns, yeah
When all hope is crumbling down
You are my safe and sound
You are my feet upon the ground
And my wings up in the sky
Oh baby, you make me fly

Would you repaint the picture?
You make everything in this sun-kissed instead of bitter

Sweet, when I walk with you, and your hand's holding mine
You're so sweet
The troubles of the day fade away
To peaches and Caroline

Well I'm still here waiting
And I'm singing a sweet song on the radio
And tough times never felt so good
Just like a diamond in my soul

And you're so sweet

Sweet like peaches, and sweet like Caroline

You're so sweet
When I walk with you and your hand's holding mine
You're so sweet
The troubles of the day fade away
To peaches and Caroline
