Blanket-Go-Round

Ari Herstand

The pillow loses volume below you
I move to give it life
The blanket has now fallen all on you
The breeze gives my mind sightI could rest here always Wide eyed I lie and sigh because I know the moment our feet meet the ground its over and Im closer to being bound to the blanket-go-roundTimidly I whisper I kiss her begging for some life Asleep she cannot hear me or feel me
I wait and watch the sun riseI could rest here always Wide eyed I lie and sigh because I know the moment our feet meet the ground
its over and Im closer to being bound to the blanket-go-roundLast week was the dancer Next week Ill have my answer how we fit inside Blankets serve one purpose and I am very nervous Ill never find the one that keeps me warm I have fooled my brain into thinking blankets change with each new owner they find I curl up underneath this weeks blanket and I sleep thrilled but chilled again tonightI could rest here always Wide eyed I lie and sigh because
I know the moment our feet meet the ground
its over and Im closer to being bound to the blanket-go-round
