If What You Mean Is Harm

Absentstar

It's been coming 'round for days
Ive been seeing it for years
Youve said all you had to say
It doesnt mean that you're sincere
If what you mean is harmAnd we know what you will say
When you talk behind our ears
Youre the good in everything
And the worst of all our fears
If what you mean is harmAnd your dying thoughts kill us all
And your dying thoughts kill us allNow youre waiting on a life
That you thought would reappear
You take comfort in the ways
That you held out all these years
No love, loss, or harm
