

No Way Out

Jefferson Starship

No intentions whatsoever
I was gone for a night nothing's forever
The cruel daylight brought me back to my senses
(Back to my senses)
Got caught in here under false pretenses No way out none whatever
I made up the story thought it was clever
She didn't ask and I got no reply
(Got no reply)
But later that night I heard her cry No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story No accusations whatsoever
But can she forget nothing's forever
Since yesterday she's a little bit colder
(Little bit colder)
Won't happen again what could I've told her No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
Doesn't buy my story How can she tell the truth from the lies?
How does she know when to close her eyes?
She doesn't want to lose me
So she only sees what she wants to see No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story No way out
No way out
No way out
