

No Way Out

Jefferson Starship

No intentions whatsoever
I was gone for a night nothing's forever
The cruel daylight brought me back to my senses
    (Back to my senses)
Got caught in here under false pretensesNo way out none whatever
    I made up the story thought it was clever
    She didn't ask and I got no reply
    (Got no reply)
But later that night I heard her cryNo way out, she doesn't buy my story
    No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my storyNo accusations whatsoever
    But can she forget nothing's forever
    Since yesterday she's a little bit colder
    (Little bit colder)
Won't happen again what could I've told herNo way out, she doesn't buy my story
    No way out, she doesn't buy my story
    No way out, she doesn't buy my story
Doesn't buy my storyHow can she tell the truth from the lies?
    How does she know when to close her eyes?
    She doesn't want to lose me
So she only sees what she wants to seeNo way out, she doesn't buy my story
    No way out, she doesn't buy my story
    No way out, she doesn't buy my storyNo way out
    No way out
    No way out
