

Splash of Light

Ezra Furman

all of life
is a splash of light
through a fuzzy filter
through a blurry lens
me and all my friends
we have to pretend
that it all makes sense some nights lying in bed deep inside my haunted head i go someplace not like that sometimes i don't wanna come back but i always do
i come back for you
cos i love you
all my life
was a splash of light
a splash of light
