Every Little Thing

Carly Pearce

The scent that you left on my pillow
The sound of your heartbeat with mine
The look in your eyes light the window
The taste of your kiss soaked in wine

Chorus
Every little thing
I remember every little thing
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting,
Every little thing

Guess you forgot what you told me
Because you left my heart on the floor
Baby your ghost still holds me
But I donâ€™t want to sleep with him no more

Chorus
Every little thing
I remember every little thing
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting,
Every little thing
I remember every little thing
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
Every little thing

(Music Interlude)

They say time is the only healer
God I hope that isnâ€™t right
Cause right now Iâ€™d die
To unremember

Chorus
Every little thing
I remember every little thing
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting,
Every little thing

I remember every little thing
Iâ€™m holding back the memories

Every little thing
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting,
Every little thing
