

Not Cause I Wanted To

Bonnie Raitt

Well I'm calling you
Cause you deserve to know
You were not the reason
That I had to go
Late at night
In these hotel rooms
I think of all I've lost
And what I put you through
If I knew the reason I would tell you
Why somehow the feeling slipped away
I only did what I had to do
Not cause I wanted to

I've got a guilty heart
And a troubled mind
No matter where I go
They're never far behind
I'd like to think
That you've forgiven me
But forgiveness ain't enough to wash my conscious clean
Oh and if I knew the reason I would tell you
Why somehow the feeling slipped away
I only did what I had to do
Not cause I wanted to
I only did what I had to do
Not cause I wanted to
