Maybe I'm the One

Dropline

Look at the mercury man in his shoes
Talkin' a lot
But he's still got the blues
Do you like his music?
Do you like his music?Say I'd be better if I was like him
What kind of stuck up world are you in Keeping it out with an attitudeBut why
Does the sun come over me?
But why
Do I find it hard to breathe?Maybe I'm the one
The one with the attitude
And maybe I'm the one
It's an honest mistakeLook at my head
And you tell me it's wrong
You give me an answer
That doesn't belong
Ah well I'm not so foolish
I know I'm not so foolishWe connect
But we can't relate
Takin' your sunshine out of my rain
Keepin' it out with an attitudeBut why
Does the sun come over me?
But why
Do I find it hard to breathe?Maybe I'm the one
I'm the one with the attitude
And maybe I'm the one
It's an honest mistakeI stare out at the sun
There's a cloud hanging over you
And maybe I'm the one
It's an honest mistake
Oh yeah!And I know it hurts
When things are not so clear
Oh!But why?
'Cause it's not too dark to see
But why
Do I find it hard to separate you?
Why
Do I really have to know these things?
And why

Did I get here?Maybe I'm the one
The one with the attitude
And maybe I'm the one
It's an honest mistakeI stare out at the sun
There's a cloud hanging over you
And maybe I'm the one
It's an honest mistake
Oh yeah!And I know it hurts
When things are not so clear
And I'm not the kind to take advantage
And I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/