All I Have

Until June

I know that it feels like summer
But it's fall I have
The dark fades and my heart starts beating
When the sun comes outAnd I wanna say that I can't explain
And so I tried and so I tried
And so I tried and so I tried, oh, ohI know, I'm frail or broken
You are all I have
You move me in ways I've needed
Like no one canAnd I wanna say that I can't explain
And so I tried and so I tried
And so I tried and so I tried, oh, oh, ohAnd I wanna know why
And so I tried and so I tried
And so I tried and so I tried
And so I tried and so I tried
And so I tried and so I tried, oh, oh
