

Before It Breaks

Brandi Carlile

Around here, it's the hardest time of year
Waking up, the days are even gone
The collar of my coat, Lord help me, cannot help the cold
The rain drops sting my eyes, I keep them closed But I'm feelin' no pain
I'm a little lonely and my quietest friend
Have I the moonlight? Have I let you in? Say it ain't so, say I'm happy again
Say it's over, say I'm dreaming
Say I'm better than you left me
Say you're sorry, I can take it Say you'll wait, say you won't
Say you love me, say you don't
I can make my own mistakes
Let it bend before it breaks I'm alright, don't I seem to be?
Aren't I swinging on the stars? Don't I wear them on my sleeve?
Went looking for a crossroads, it happens every day
And whichever way you turn, I'm gonna turn the other way Say it's over, say I'm dreaming
Say I'm better than you left me
Say you're sorry, I can take it Say you'll wait, say you won't
Say you love me, say you don't
I can make my own mistakes
Learn to let it bend before it breaks Say it's over, say I'm dreaming
Say I'm better than you left me
Say you're sorry, I can take it Say you'll wait, say you won't
Say you love me, say you don't
I can make my own mistakes
Let it bend before it breaks
