Sacrifice

Danzig

I want to bring you
I want to feel alive in you
I want to bathe in the danger of ourselves
To feel youI want to take you
Carve a new design in you
I want to look in your other face
But it's so damn hard to findI want to bring it
I want to bring it
I gotta feel all sacrificed
I gotta feel all sacrificed
I'll never let you knowI gotta feel all sacrificed
I'll never let you know
I'll never let you know
I'll never let you knowI want to peel it back
I want to look inside
I want to see the inscriptions glow
Where your teardrops crawlUnder the downward side
I was the death you beg to hold
Now you have the thing that you wanted most
You can never ownI want to bring it
I want to bring it
I gotta feel all sacrificed
I gotta feel all sacrificedI gotta feel all sacrificed
I gotta feel all sacrificed
I'll never let you know
I'll never let you knowI gotta feel all sacrificed
I'll never let you know
I'll never let you know
I'll never let you know
