Reaper

Bathory

I close your eyes and send you into vainly dreams I reign your soul the nightengulf your painful screamsI watch you cry and twist your soul in agony No prayers can save you now from hell in eternityI devastate your soul and lacerate your mind In sin I sanctify my sword to crush your spineI'm the ReaperYou're too confused you can't elude my misty eyes No need to hang on to your faith in love and lifeWhatever I command your soul obeys my needs You're like a zombie now with a soul that burns and bleedsThere's not much left of you your soul belongs to me Nothing can save you now or set your spirit free['m the ReaperComing to take youI love the sight of having you down and open wide The smell of a dead woman's flesh just drives me fucking wildI have to got you in my grasp now there is no need to escape I'll penetrate you every virgin needs a rapeJust when you think you have gone through all that gives you pain I'm coming back to you to penetrate again
