

End of Story

Fireball Ministry

There was a man who saw the reason
There was a man who changed it all
There was a man they charged with treason
There was a man who took the fall
We knew a man who had the power
Made us all see eye to eye
He took us to the final hour and never asked
The reason why have to stand up
For something have to live for today
There's only one thing left to say
All looking for something
All needing the cure time passes
On empty feelings and it ain't stopping for sure
You were the man who saw the reason
You were the man who changed it all
You were the man they charged with treason
You were the one who took the fall
We always knew who had the power
We never saw eye to eye
Sitting in the ivory tower
He won and never had to try
