

Yaoi

Ballet School

And when we met
You had a feeling that you knew my face
Another life, another dream
Another woman in another place
Another one who broke her heart
Trying to keep herself clean The heart or the chain?
The heart or the chain?
(I love, you blame)
Baby, call me by my name I never wanted to pretend
That we could be the same
Cause I've been living my own life
And I've been dreaming my own dream
It's not a battle if you always win The heart or the chain?
The heart or the chain?
(I love, you blame)
Baby, call me by my name I've been dreaming my own dream
Dreaming my own dream
I've been dreaming my own dream
Dreaming my own dream
While you're taking what you need
I'm losing everything, losing everything The heart or the chain?
The heart or the chain?
(I love, you blame)
Baby, call me by my name
