

Back to Me

Jack Savoretti

Living in the dark, I've been acting crazy
Looking for a light to help me find my way
Falling apart, feeling like a fool lately
I need a little love
I need a little love to find my way
Wishing on a star, I'd give anything
Right the wrong and have you next to me
Hand on my heart I only want one thing
To give a little love
To give a little love to me
Back to me
I can't feel it more than how I feel it now
And I won't give up on everything I've lost and found
Living in the dark, I've been acting crazy
Looking for a light to help me find my way
Hand on my heart I only want you baby
To give a little love
To give a little love back to me
Back to me
Back to me
