

When the Time Comes

David Duchovny

When the time comes
All I have done
All that is and all that was all Iâ€™ve torn and worn, destroyed and undone
Will be seen as one
We will be as one
When the time comes

I know why my caged bird sings
Heâ€™s blaming others for cagey things
The devil you know and the angel in the wings
Are revealed as one
Itâ€™s always just begun
When the time comes

The future runs up ahead of me
Holding hands with sometimes enemy
The present cannot keep itâ€™s shit together
Itâ€™s only the past that last forever
We will see that we have seen
Our kingdom come and gone
When the time comes

Jack and Jill
Ran out on their bill
When Jack fell down
He found his crown
When Jill came tumbling after thatâ€™s when they died of laughter
We recall rhymes and songs
The exile shall again be long
We will see that what we seek was inside all along
When the time comes
When the time comes
When the time comes
