

That's Love

Oddisee

When you told me the truth, even if it really hurt
 'Cuz you knew a lie was worst (That's love)
When you let me burrow money, that you didn't really have
 'Cuz you knew what I was worth (That's love)
When I was at my worst, you would tell me I would blow
 When I thought that I would burst (That's love)
You taught me how to help others, and through that discovered
 How to put myself first
And here we are again, just confronting fears
 Whether pain, or gain, it's a bunch of tears
 Blood, sweat, and peers, probably disappear
When smoke starts to clear, their persistence near
Pay attention to the folks, who're fan of the flames
They is the ones who matter most, In the gravity game
When stakes weigh you down, and they stay around
 And pick up pieces, of you off the ground
 That's love

 That's love
 That's love
 That's love
Aye, that's love, that's love
 That's love, that's
 That's love, love, love
 That's love

When you were giving me advice, that I seldom ever took
 But your hand never shook (That's love)
Off knowing that you were right, never shaken, living right
 Just gave me that look (That's love)
When i had to learn the hard way, and you would let me fall
 But never did it out of spite (That's love)
 You told me never burn a bridge
 If you build it, then you need it
 Whether a river or a brook
And here we are again, in the cross of paths
 Darwin's our friendship, strong as glass
But our strength lies in our first thoughts that laugh at
 The things that bring most hurt hearts to clash

Funk passed the ball, beat bounced the brawl
Pass it, playing these blame games, and all
Had a few deals, time out to chill
But knowing when you need space means you feel
In love

Ooooooo, we try to tell ourselves
That we don't really need it anymore
As if a million dollars, or the bottom of a bottle
Or a carton, never cheated before
So you start with the "I don't need it, all i need is money"
"You can give it to me, but you'll never get it from me"
Yea you refused to play, but you was still in the game
Like it, or not, let me explain
Now see
There's a tough kind, a too much kind
A not enough kind, a rather rushed kind
And irrupt kind, a go nuts kind
A hold up, maybe we should take it slow kind
A when you know kind, it started off as friends
But then over time, it began to show kind
And if we love each other, but we can't stay together
We'll do worst than better, gotta go kind
And that's love
