

As Love Is My Witness

Westlife

Once in a lifetime
You look in someone's eyes
And it feels like the world stops
Turning at once Well that's what it felt like for me
I knew right away this day would be
Standing together, believing forever
Is there in our reach As love is my witness, I swear
I'll be with you 'til the end
Nothing can tear this love apart
I'll put my hand upon my heart This is the promise I make to you
Whatever comes, we'll see it through
Nothing can break it, feelings too strong
As love is my witness
We've both known sorrow
We have known heartache
When our dreams for tomorrow
Seem so far away That brought us closer, yeah
It brought us together
So that we know the real thing
That's why I can say As love is my witness, I swear
I'll be with you 'til the end
Nothing can tear this love apart
I'll put my hand upon my heart This is the promise I make to you
Whatever comes, we'll see it through
Nothing can break it, this feelings too strong
As love is my witness
I know whatever comes to be
Together we'll face the misery
Here in my heart, deep in my soul
Somehow I know, I know! As love is my witness, I swear
I'll be with you 'til the end
Nothing can tear this love apart
I'll put my hand upon my heart This is the promise I make to you
Whatever comes, we'll see it through
Nothing can break it, feelings too strong
As love is my witness Nothing can break it,
This feelings too strong
As love is my witness
