

Afraid

Amel Larrieux

I dream of you nights daytime too
Like someone slipped me something
And that something's you
Almost walked into a wall
Imagining your embrace
Had to snap myself out of the thought
Of your lips and your heavenly daze This sensation is real
The blood rushes into each place as if you were here
Elevating me to
Closed eyed elation
Heartbeat is racing
This evocation Got me afraid of
The rapture stirring inside of me
Got me afraid of
What I'm gonna do if I get you to see
Got me Afraid of
You
So fine sometimes I forget to breathe
Got me afraid that
Wherever you are is wherever I have to be Faces are fading Replaced with yours bodies are changing into your beautiful form Want to feel your pulse beating inside mine
Want you to press against me like if you don't you'll die This sensation is real
The blood rushes into
Elevating me to
Closed eyed elation
Heartbeat is racing
This evocation Got me afraid of
The rapture stirring inside of me
Got me afraid of
What I'm gonna do if I get you to see
Got me Afraid of

You
So fine sometimes I forget to breathe
Got me afraid that
Wherever you are is wherever I have to be You must be kin to the moon Cause when you're up and out and full
I could be anywhere and feel the pull Whispering to my ocean
It's glow and nectar flowing into my spine
And This Is Why... I am Afraid of
Got me afraid of
What I'm gonna do if I get you to see
Got me Afraid of
You
So fine sometimes I forget to breathe
Got me afraid that
Wherever you are is wherever I have to be
