Cue the Sky

Keeping Secrets

As we drive
As we drive past these dotted lines
Iâ€™m looking to strangersâ€™ eyes to see a sign of life
But truth to be told
This city has no love to give
Itâ€™s been lost in the concrete
Lost in the traffic
Lost in the broken dreams so
Oh my god, save me

A thousand faces on the interstate
And Iâ€™m feigning for any sign of familiarity
They rise above me, now I can finally say
That Iâ€™m dying to know will they ever know my name

Now here we are
Prayer for a miracle
So cue the sky
Itâ€™s about time that itâ€™s made its famous fall
To end all clichÃ©s
It may not mean a thing
But at least we stay true to our hearts

So now hold what close to your heart
Write the perfect ending
The world that we know needs a changing
Shine, the lights down on us
Now I look to the sky
And brace myself for the ride
My eyes closed to the world
But I can still see the light
