

Love Grows

Rhett Miller

Find it in the little moments and all the little things
Find it in the morning in the brand new day it brings
Find it in the garden, everybody knows
Love grows, love grows We might get a miracle never even know
Might not be a big deal but it's a miracle, even so
Read behind the ridge line on the every breeze that blows
Love grows, love grows Into a great big mountain, into a might road
All the rivers running down to the ocean floor
Yeah, this is love and love, it's good, that's just the way it goes
Love grows, love grows, love grows, love grows
