

Rather Unique

Az

Rock the house

East New York, East New York

To my nigga AZ to the fullest We was already loyal to people's minds and mulianis

Now we more fucked up with a mayor named Guliani

You can try to bomb me analyze but can't define me

My mind's divine heavily entwined with Ghandi's Far from feeble, I leave your nostrils hard to breathe through

'Cause my cerebrals are more of a higher plane than the Hebrews

Well my mic devotion brings out my deepest emotions

Overdosing wannabes posing sending them through convulsions To hard to follow, you took a bite but couldn't swallow

Your mind's boggled but I'm as deep as Donald Goines novels

My whole persona's kinda laid back like a recliner

And since my mama, I been fucking with marijuana Wavy-haired, my skin got a money getting glare

Strictly menace wear, making off a Guinness beer

So where it all begins is here destiny and me finally meet

So how can I be weak? I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique My verbals rip shit brains give birth to thoughts in triplets

Fuck it I'm on some flip shit ready to let my clip spit, dramatical

Vocals release shells like automatics

Do music's magical causing any battle to be tragical I got styles sick as hell, sicker than sickle cell anemia

Slaughter your circulatory like leukemia

Filled with larceny, who want parts of me?

I'm vicious, mad malicious 'cause it's real on this road to riches I got this mastered, other rappers'll craft it

Weak and wicked camouflaged as killers how they speak and kick it

Peep this uniqueness nonbelievers I'm leaving speechless

Left to chokers and skunk smoke was coming through the speakers Surgically nice with any verbal device trife, breathing life into mics

My insight's beyond the twilight so die, fight, no surrender, no retreat

Techniques speak I'm rather unique I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique

Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique So it's gonna take more than your astrologist to knowledge this
A physiologist couldn't even figure out the exoticness
Raps demolishing certified the way I style it
My wordplay blaze with the rays of ultra violence My culture's smiling, getting more in depth with each breath
My biography follows the footsteps of Malcolm X
Money and sex, Gore-Tex Donna Karan and Guess
Finesse, success through the life stress mics I blessed Puffing trees to get me high as trapeze
Flipping Japanese at ease when I'm stacking G's
So let's discuss, plus degrees
How the rhyme forces the source for thoughts that's lost
So don't cross 'cause it'll cost The ghetto savior, smooth, the real playa with flavor
Moves be major with unexplainable behavior
The word's on the street so keep your ears to the concrete
Why I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
Why I'm rather unique
