Internal Warfare

Epica

Would anybody dare to know the answer?
Would anybody dare to face the truth?
We bide the time awaiting our answers
To our kind
We're all in this apocalypse together
The horror we so feared can't be undone
We all remove allegiance to disaster
Tragic crime
Life we used to know
Ends where silence comes to us forever
Night will soon bestow
Justice on a day that never ends
The percing eyes of bullets' shine run Faster
Than peace and understanding can conceive

To use and to deceive to teach a lesson
Cross the line
I'm a true believer
A soldier with a gun
I shall swipe the earth clean
Won't take long
Te Deplangemus - Haud Resistentes - A Te Vexati - Manebimus
I must trust my instinct
And act on his behalf
My ship is full with water
But won't go down
DEDICATED TO THE VICTIMS OF ANDERS BREIVIK
