

Internal Warfare

Epica

Would anybody dare to know the answer?

Would anybody dare to face the truth?

We bide the time awaiting our answers

To our kind

We're all in this apocalypse together

The horror we so feared can't be undone

We all remove allegiance to disaster

Tragic crime

Life we used to know

Ends where silence comes to us forever

Night will soon bestow

Justice on a day that never ends

The piercing eyes of bullets' shine run Faster

Than peace and understanding can conceive

To use and to deceive to teach a lesson

Cross the line

I'm a true believer

A soldier with a gun

I shall swipe the earth clean

Won't take long

Te Deplangemus - Haud Resistentes - A Te Vexati - Manebimus

I must trust my instinct

And act on his behalf

My ship is full with water

But won't go down

DEDICATED TO THE VICTIMS OF ANDERS BREIVIK
