Annabelle

Joseph Bishara

I wake up and I crawl out of bed
Look in the mirror just to make sure I'm not dead
I'm still asleep
When I finally awake
I pray to whoever that I'm not too late
Where have I been?
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
And if you walk with me,
I will walk with you
And if you talk to me,
Then I will talk to you
And if you walk with me,
Then I will walk...
Look out my window
And it's kind of dark
Perfect day for a walk inside the park
I'll supply the rain
You ask me, I guess it ain't that bad
Living life out of a paper bag
Where have I been?

Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
And if you walk with me,
I will walk with you
And if you talk to me,
Then I will talk...
And if you walk with me,
I will walk with...
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
Please don't take Annabelle away
And if you walk with me,

Then I will walk with you
And if you talk to me,
Then I will talk to you
And if you walk with me,
Then I will walk with you
