Without You

Exilia

It's sweet sweet sweet enough,
Not to forget you
And it's cold cold cold enough,
That I need you
I ask now how can I breath.
It's dark dark dark enough,
Not the see the light
And it's just not easy enough to know whyAnd I am here, I am here, just wait for meWhile I'm living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to goIt's sweet sweet
But you're gone from here
I'm still looking for you
In everything you left behind for me
And it seems like now
You are calling me
And I'm saying you never left meAnd I am here, I am here, just wait for meWell I'm still living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to go
Without youHow can I breath, how can I breath
Without you
And I'm here, and I'm hereWhile I'm living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding
And I've got no place to goWithout you
Without you
Without you
