

Without You

Exilia

It's sweet sweet sweet enough,

Not to forget you

And it's cold cold cold enough,

That I need you

I ask now how can I breath.

It's dark dark dark enough,

Not the see the light

And it's just not easy enough to know why
And I am here, I am here, just wait for me
While I'm living my heart is screaming

For what I can't forget at all

Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding

And I've got no place to go
It's sweet sweet

But you're gone from here

I'm still looking for you

In everything you left behind for me

And it seems like now

You are calling me

And I'm saying you never left me
And I am here, I am here, just wait for me
Well I'm still living my heart is screaming

For what I can't forget at all

Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding

And I've got no place to go

Without you
How can I breath, how can I breath

Without you

And I'm here, and I'm here
While I'm living my heart is screaming

For what I can't forget at all

Yeah, I'm breathing but I'm bleeding

And I've got no place to go
Without you

Without you

Without you
