

Fade

Tom Adams

Whispered goodbye, then finally walked,
It's the last time, And the road back home feels longer now,

Remember that night, we promised with young hearts,
With your hand in mine, but forever did not last a long time,
And ya know, that I'm holding all the memories dear (x4)

Six months have passed, that we cannot ignore,
The light slowly fades, but what do you see, when you close your eyes,
Ya know, that I'm holding all the memories dear (x3)
And you fade away (x4)
