She's Coming Home

The Zombies

I saw her walking out the other day
I thought my love for her
Had gone awayWell, I remember
How I loved her so
(Baby, come on home)
My solitude tells me she could, noBut she said what to me
She's coming home
And so I'll cry no more
I'll dry my tearsShe's coming home to me
She's coming home to meI thought the words of love we used to say
Were lost to time
Oh baby, baby, baby
I'll be good to youIf you would only try again to love me too
Our love was such a sweet and gentle thing
I threw our love away
With I thoughtBut she said what to me
She's coming home
And so I'll cry no more
I'll dry my tearsShe's coming home to me
She's coming home to meBut she said what to me
She's coming home
And so I'll cry no more
I'll dry my tearsShe's coming home to me
She's coming home to me
She's coming home to me, oh
