

Compulsory Resignation

Sinister

Assault your own blood to indulge spiritual illnes possessive hands clamp obsessed eyes force resignationMental collapse shall ruleUsed innocence marked for life self - respect has been taken awayAbhor against masculine contact painful remembrances cross your progresionFight innerself persue you thrown away information noone wants to listen to you you have the wrong attitudeCompulsory resignationHorrible pressure on the brain self- blame manipulates your nerves a wall of hatred grows around damn the past forever or is there any hope for improvementCompulsory resignation
