

Expelled

Pain

I feel you breathing down my neck
Nowhere to hide
I thought I could get away
But it's a good day to die My time has come
But I don't think I am ready yet
I've lost the game
I thought I played so very well No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna go
No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna die, I got more to give Here I stand, the accused
With a rope around my neck
Just wait for the final call
Then I'll be gone Never got the chance to say goodbye
Never got the chance to take the time to enjoy my life No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna go
No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna die, I got more to give Don't take my life away now No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna go
No, I don't wanna go now
I don't wanna die, I got more to give No, I don't wanna go now
Don't take my life away now
