A Little Deeper

Ms. Dynamite

Have you ever had a broken heart
Felt so much pain, lived in so much dark?
Thought you'd never see the light again
Have you ever yearned from deep within?
When you see other laughin'
That just for one second you could be them
I lived life hidin' behind the curtain
Never known for certain when, I'd be free
I lived life as my shadow hopin that the pain would go
But all the time I was hidin' from me
If you know what I mean
If you too are searchin to be happy, yeah
All you gotta do
Is dig a little deeper within you
If you know what I mean
If you too are searchin to be happy, yeah
All you gotta do
Is dig a little deeper within you
Have you ever fallen out of love
Your feelings just disappeared
But it's yourself you're thinkin of
And so still you kept them near
Have you ever been untrue
Even though you knew right from wrong
But the coward in you
Just kept them hangin' on
I ain't claimin' to be no angel
I really never meant to
It just weren't meant to be, no
And I knew he thought I was the one
The least that I could've done
Was make him hear it from me
If you ever been through
Broken heart then really you need to
Remember how it felt before you're untrue
And think a little deeper 'bout what you do
If you ever been through
A broken heart then really you need to
Remember how it felt before you're untrue

And think a little deeper 'bout what you do
Ooh, can you get a little deeper?
Can you get a little deeper?
Can you get a little deeper?
Oh, can you get a little deeper?
Can you get a little deeper?
Ooh, get a little deeper
Get a little deeper
Can you get a little deeper?
Get a little deeper
Get a little deeper
If you know what I mean
If you too are searchin' to be happy, yeah
All you gotta do
Is dig a little deeper, within you
If you know what I mean
If you too are searchin to be happy, yeah
All you gotta do
Is dig a little deeper, within you
