

Blame It on the Stones

Kris Kristofferson

Mister Marvin middle class is really in a stew
Wondrin' what the younger generations coming to
And the taste of his martini doesn't please his bitter tongue
Blame it on the rolling stonesBlame it on the stones, blame it on the stones
You'll feel so much better knowing you don't stand alone
Join the accusation, save the bleeding nation
Get it off your shoulders, blame it on the stonesMother tells the ladies at the bridge club every day
Of the rising price of tranquilizers she must pay
And she wonders why the children never seem to stay at home
Blame it on the rolling stonesBlame it on the stones, blame it on the stones
You'll feel so much better knowing you don't stand alone
Join the accusation, save the bleeding nation
Get it off your shoulders, blame it on the stonesFathers at the office, nightly working all the time
Trying to make the secretary change her little mind
And it bothers him to read about so many broken homes
Blame it on those rolling stonesBlame it on the stones, blame it on the stones
You'll feel so much better knowing you don't stand alone
Join the accusation, save the bleeding nation
Get it off your shoulders, blame it on the stonesBlame it on the stones, blame it on the stones
