

Caterwaul

I Was Totally Destroying It

I didn't know you
I didn't care
Your submissions were your own to share
But now I cannot bleed for the oceans
You bled on the bathroom floor
And I cannot find an emotion
To keep us safe from the wolves at the door

Tell me now, there's nothing to fear
But close your eyes, what do you hear?

A caterwaul in the dark

There are strangers who will often relate
There is no danger in this world but no safe place to play
I've met the wolf I run from
And I have shook him by the hand
I've kissed him on the mouth too
And he called me little red

So tell me now, there's nothing to fear
But close your eyes, what do you hear?

A caterwaul in the dark

In a lie is where I roam
In the mirror now nothing shows
Give me time to rest the role
Because I still hear it and it's all I know

A caterwaul in the dark
