

My Wall (Ft. Excision)

Korn

And along came something sacred
I never knew what I found
The demons dance around, elated
They're hurting me I put my wall up each day
You tear it down
I hide in my space
The space you found
And one of these days
I'll come unbound
The feelings I hate
Will finally drown Falling awake in a nightmare
Images of horror abound
Thought I stumbled upon salvation
Hell I found I put my wall up each day
You tear it down
I hide in my space
The space you found
And one of these days
I'll come unbound
The feelings I hate
Will finally drown Well, I'll never be the same
It's the greatest lie ever told
No, I'll never be the same
I sold my soul I put my wall up each day
You tear it down
I hide in my space
The space you found
And one of these days
I'll come unbound
The feelings I hate
Will finally drown
