

Whiskey Girl

Gillian Welch

Nowhere man and the whiskey girl
Nowhere man and the whiskey girl
They loaded up for a weekend in the underworld I'd take you down honey if I could I'd take you down honey if I could
We find a place in the sunshine, we'd be feeling good Don't you know that it ain't a crime
Don't you know that it ain't a crime
If all the squares and the junk men think you're out of line Nowhere man and the whiskey girl
Nowhere man and the whiskey girl
They loaded up for a weekend in the underworld
