

This Is How

Louden Swain

Remember that time
We fell in love
I kind of reached my limit
When push came to shove
One foot on the target
One foot on the rails
Making you the marker
I set myself up to fail This is how your story is unfolding.
Try to grab a hold and slow it down
I find my voice and scream it from the rooftops
This is how
When your light is red
I feel blue
I reached my quota
Of dealing with you
One foot on the carpet
One foot on the wood
Making like a bandit
Ducking out
Just like I knew you would This is how your story is unfolding.
Try to grab a hold and slow it down
Here and now the sun is also rising Day in and out, it offers no relief
I find my voice and sing it from the rooftops Stand up tall and slowly take a bow
This is how
yeah yeah yeah
yeah yeah yeah
yeah yeah how yeah yeah yeah
yeah yeah yeah
yeah yeah how how yeah yeah yeah
yeah yeah yeah
