changes

Tiffany Evans

Seems likes yesterday we were chillin' in the hallway waitin' for the bell to ring then walkin' to class late we had no intentions on payin' any attention throwing notes across the room end up in detentionHiding from the teachers up under the bleachers first make-out experience where I got experience someone stood and counted while others scored in bathroomsOh what I would give to go back to that Last nightFlipping through my yearbook pages thinking it's a shame that everything changes wish everything I knew could stay the same just like they were
'cause change is overratedFlipping through my yearbook pages thinking it's a shame that everybody changes wish everyone I knew could stay the same just like they were 'cause change is overratedFast forward three years I'm home on a week Christmas vacation ran into Michelle the head cheerleader she's three months pregnant and our highschool quarterback got paralyzed in an accident he was on his way to the NFL whatever happened to our Valadvictorian heard she had a break up or some mess the second year I hope she pulls it together and wish I could help a friend I wish I could reverse the hands of time go back againFlipping through my yearbook pages thinking it's a shame that everything changes wish everything I knew could stay the same just like they were
'cause change is overratedFlipping through my yearbook pages
thinking it's a shame that everybody changes
wish everyone I knew could stay the same just like they were
'cause change is overratedFlipping through my yearbook pages
thinking it's a shame that everything changes wish everything I knew could stay the same just like they were
'cause change is overratedThinking back to my past I wouldn't change a thing probably do everything exactly the same given the opportunity to live it over again I would cherish every momentBack in the days when I was young I'm not a kid anymore somedays I sit and wish I was a kid again back in the days when I was young I'm not a kid anymore

somedays I sit and wish I was a kid againFlipping through my yearbook pages thinking it's a shame that everything changes wish everything I knew could stay the same just like they were
'cause change is overratedFlipping through my yearbook pages
thinking it's a shame that everybody changes
'cause change is overratedOverrated... (echo)
