

Close

Westlife

Close Across the miles, it's funny to me
How far away you are but how near you seem to be
I could talk all night just to hear you breathe
I could spend my life just living this dream
You're all I'll ever need You give me strength, you give me hope
You give me someone to love someone to hold
When I'm in your arms, I need you to know
I've never been, I've never been this close With all the loves I used to know
I kept my distance, I never let go
But in your arms I know I'm safe
'Cause I've never been held
And I've never been kissed in this way
Oh, you're all I'll ever need
You're all I'll ever need You give me strength, you give me hope
You give me someone to love someone to hold
When I'm in your arms, I need you to know
I've never been, I've never been this close Close enough to see it's true
Close enough to trust in you
Closer now than any words can say, yeah
And when, when I'm in your arms
I need you to know I've never been
I've never been this close You give me strength, you give me hope
You give me someone to love someone to hold
When I'm in your arms, I need you to know
I've never been, I've never been
Oh, no, I swear, I've never been
I've never been this close
