Everything You Want

Jonathan Emile

(Intro)
The Lover/Fighter
Could you turn up the beat please?
Thank You.(Verse 1)
He never treat you like, your a treat right
I'm a treat you like, your my favorite type
And be a good boy to get it
Never sweat it, just let it
Let It rain, let it poor
Like a plane let it soar
The softest love hardcore
Take it to The Roots -- Do you want more?!
The rout is love, there ain't no exit
Begin with love and let the friendship
Take you to a new height
Call me on the phone we can talk all night
See I know how treat a queen, yeah
Plus I know what a friendship means
We could start as team
You and me against the world
Its okay, go head, ask yourself girl(Hook)
Is he everything you want... and everything you need...(Verse 1)
He doesn't pay attention, he's just listening
He doesn't do the do he says the right thing
He's never forth coming.
And thinks problems are only solved by coming/cumming,
back around in spheres .
He's not honest or clear
He only opens up on on a few beers
He rather be chillin with his peers
Than build for years to come.
Yo, See I known where home is
If you my queen then I know were the throne is Plus the bonus
He did alright, but I do you better
Guess what it'll only get better
The provider, the protector
We are equals cause I respect her
So before we get to passion

Go ahead girl you could start asking
