

Everywhere I Go

Dizzy Wright

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Right back on top of things
Blowing up without dropping names
And im lifted
Locked the game but if i go down the Hopsin lane
I guarantee i'll Marshawn Lynch it
Y'all ain't ready for the young man
Beast Mode like i'm done playin'
Heard they feening for the next big thing
Shit, well im looking like I need to come and fill that position
Listen, can't wait for y'all
Either I'm finna find a way or i'll make the way
People that said that they got me and then they forgot me
Guess what
Today's the day that imma save the day
And you gon' watch because you paved the way
The hate make me better
Now I'm happy, smoking good and motivated
To keep running this city forever
I love to rap
Dizzy Wright stepping up to bat
They hope in fact
That nigga strike out
But that never will happen they hatin'
So I Jackie Robinson them with a smile
Ahead of these suckers by miles
I told you from jump that that sucker shit wasn't allowed (not allowed)
Everywhere I go turn into Vegas
Now it's time for y'all to get wild But believe everywhere I go they spread my name, the more that I spread this game
I swear everywhere I go, they go insane, roll up the mary jane
Everywhere I go turn into Vegas
Now it's time for y'all to get wild

Stay on it, live life in the moment
 Or you could just roll up and sit on a cloud
 I swear it's everywhere I go (go) go (go)
 Right back on top of things
 Everywhere I go (go) go (go)
 Right back on top of things
 Everywhere I go turn into Vegas
 Now it's time for y'all to get wild
 Time for y'all to get wild
 Time for y'all to get wild I heard they like "Who would have thought Dizzy would even come far"
 And Pac may not have changed the world, but I'm that state of mind he sparked
 So let me hit you with the heart to heart, from dark to light
 I'm headed for my destination
 Treat me right, I might take you with me
 If not take the chance of me fucking up your reputation
 I'm next (refreshing statements)
 Tell you what you don't wanna hear till your breath is taken
 Took you down the golden ages with some complications
 Nigga what more you want?
 You want a one hit wonder or an artist that got more than one?
 You need to make up your mind
 Cuz I'm constantly taking my time
 You fucking with me, then you leavin that fake shit behind
 (Uh-Oh) Bringing the 702 to the building
 Why they tryna turn the sky into a ceiling
 These niggas is too in they feelings
 So I don't want no compliments, I'm dominant
 It's time for me to start trolling
 Stoner chicks is so legit, we just line em up and go bowling
 Girls everywhere I go But believe everywhere I go they spread my name, the more that I spread this game
 I swear everywhere I go, they go insane, roll up the mary jane
 Everywhere I go turn into Vegas
 Now it's time for y'all to get wild
 Stay on it, live life in the moment
 Or you could just roll up and sit on a cloud
 I swear it's everywhere I go (go) go (go)
 Right back on top of things
 Everywhere I go (go) go (go)
 Right back on top of things
 Everywhere I go turn into Vegas
 Now it's time for y'all to get wild
 Time for y'all to get wild
 Time for y'all to get wild Uh, cruising the map, Take out your phone and take a snap
 Girls always want to do that twerk team shit in my lap
 And I'm like

Go (wild) [x6]Cuz everywhere I go turn into Vegas

Now it's time for y'all to get wild

Everywhere I go (go) go (go)

Right back on top of things

Everywhere I go (go) go (go)

Right back on top of things

Everywhere I go turn into Vegas

Now it's time for y'all to get wild

Time for y'all to get wild

Time for y'all to get wild

Wild

Time for y'all to get wild

Time for y'all to get wild

Wild
