Stone Sour

Don't come over, I don't want your company
I think you ought to spend a little bit of time alone
You say you don't need it, but damn I know you gotta have it
I tell you why,Ooh, I gotta on the inside
This hell is nothing new
If there's a hell then on the other side
You better pray you I don't get throughI'm not better than you, I'm just better
I'm not my own damn life
What do you think you know and what do you wanna know
I never thought I'd let the truth tell all my lies
My liesOoh, I gotta on the inside
This hell is nothing new
If there's a hell then on the other side
You better pray you I don't get through[Guitar solo]Bleeding for the savages
You bill me for the damages
When you're dealing with the devil
You know you gotta watch your back
Stack, you're thick, you're slick
They pull you in together and brace til you face
You can trust [?] to turn it away
And then they throw it all awayOoh, I gotta on the inside
This hell is nothing new
If there's a hell then on the other side
You better pray you I don't get throughOoh, I gotta on the inside
This hell is nothing new
If there's a hell then on the other side
You better pray you I don't get through
