We Will Reign

The Last Internationale

I know I've heard it that we might had seem it all We're building walls and we love to see them fall We've learn to walk but the spirit in us crawls It's all been written,
it's all been sung
We cannot hide of what's been coming all along
And after all it's left a reign on right or wrong Someway
someplace
I don't know where but I'm going there with you Someway
somehow
I don't know where but I'm going there with you I'll make it there with you
We will reign
We will reign
We're always saying that it's always almost over What does it take a war
to bring us closer?
And love is true it's time to get it colder Someway
someplace
I don't know where but I'm going there with you Someway
somehow
I don't know where but I'm going there with you
I'll make it there with you
I'll be there with you
We will reign
Someway
someplace
I don't know where but I'm going there with you Someway
somehow

I don't know where but I'm going there with you
I'll make it there with you
We will reign
We will reign
We will reign
We will reign
We will reign
