

Silent Treatment

The Roots

Girl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently Girl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently Yo, I had a queen named Amina, height 5'7"
Caramel-complected, body like heaven
Met her through the sister of my man Big Vince Like some shit from out the flicks we been in love ever since She called me her chocolate brotha, I call her my sugar sista
Knew Shorty could work it since before I ever kissed her
I never dissed her, painted my picture to hit
But because sex she wasn't with, she started flippin' an' shit Like, listen man, I'm Queen Amina, Amina's not no freak and
That game is weak and keep tryin' to hit I could quit speakin'
Tariq in fact, you bein' Black thought don't get ya closer
I dig ya but won't bone ya because I'm so-called supposed ta Most o' them would but that couldn't be me, that's not my flava
Go home and think about that, maybe later on I'll page ya
I contemplated and then concluded she was bluffin'
Steady pursuin' screwin', gettin' nothin' but the silent treatment Girl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently Girl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently
Silently baby Crazy frustration, about my lovin' situation
When patience was a virtue, but I wasn't used to waitin'
I want some Marvin Gaye healin', feelin' is real inside
I slip and slide, my ride'll keep you occupied, I'd Love to get wit it like that, but my baby's kitty cat's capped
And locked, Love Boat is docked at the shore
And what for? Later for groupies on tour
Why won't my sugar call me no more? I mean, my queen gets upset, rejectin' and sexually neglect
Then sayin' I'm more sewer than Das EFX, and closed minded
It's like I'm blinded by the skinnin'
I'm into women because of that, this one's into communication Temptation played the vandal, freakin' my brain,

my mind
Rippin' the handle on physically scandalous acts
Yo! She knew what I wanted, but she fronted
Bust itGirl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silentlyGirl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently
Silently babyWell, movin' right along with the song, plus the strong Feelings on my mind, desire to intertwine
Combine and blend, baby bust a message that I send Ain't no need to pretend because shit is real 'til the endI provide a place to hide from crime, hard times
And livin' trife, while I open ya mind, you're in my life
Like love, it ain't no way no one can rise above what's real
That's why I'm feelin' like you're makin' me buggedI puff an El on fifty deuce while I walk in the rain
Heart feelin' killa pain while I hop the train
Dial her number to the rest, and ain't no messages left Regardless, my chest thumps from stress, yo it's a messI don't know what I got to do to make you understand
I'm for real and that's no question, no frontin' or no guessin'
Undressin', carressin', in the span, that I contain in my hand
Could touch and make you say that I'm such a manAnd call my name, so let me set your body aflame
I'll never treat you like a dame or run game, now who's to blame?
I know you're not a hoe for niggaz with a lot of dough
But I just wanted you to knowGirl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently
Silently babyGirl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently
Silently babyGirl, you know that you need to stop givin' me the silent treatment, baby
Can't you see what you mean to me?
I wanna love you constantly but you keep neglecting me
And treating me silently
Silently, silently
