Caribbean Blues

Juan Luis Guerra

Many cages many rules many battles in my blues Many days without a clue but, you came and turned me looseCall you when things don't go my way you have the world that hits my brain Heal me with your touch, anoint me because your love is all I needIt's all about you You're the one who lives inside my mind
a message falling from the sky
and a revelation of the moonIt's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes a solitary spotlight in my show
You are the one who plays the violin in my Caribbean bluesI've got the habit of your smile my dwelling place around your heart Heal me with your touch, anoint me
because your love is all I needIt's all about you You're the one who lives inside my mind
and a revelation of the moonIt's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes
You are the one who plays the violin in my Caribbean bluesPor la marea, las olas llegan Por la mareaSearching in the evening stars above the ocean falling constellations you are the only light I knowWater takes a river far beyond the mountains In every road I take now you're the only way that I knowIt's all about you You're the one who lives inside my mind
and a revelation of the moonIt's all about you
You are the one who stays and never goes
You are the one who plays the violin in my Caribbean bluesCaribbean blues
