

All the Others

The Coronas

Do you remember when we use to sit for hours, we'd put the days away.
We like the same things, just at a different aim.(Ooh oh oh, oh oh, oh oh x3)Don't you remember when we use to talk for hours we had so much to say.
Now the steps in the hall are the only sounds we make.(Chorus)
To all the other's who can't stand one another,
Lying to them with all your energy,
Just show me lover's screaming at each other,
Least showing me something I can see.(Oh oh oh, oh oh oh, oh oh oh, x3)Stare at the surface, hasn't been clean for hours.
God, I need some air.
And you walk and you walk, but you can't find what you need there.(Chorus)
To all the other's who can't stand one another,
Lying to them with all your energy,
Just show me lover's screaming at each other,
At least it's showing me something I can see.(Bridge)
You will be discover it's one or it's the other,
Lying to them, yeah which way will it be,
Don't say it's broken, you always say it's broken,
Just show me something I know I can't believe,And you know, and you know, can't leave this up to me,
And just so, yeah so...(Chorus)
To all the other's who can't stand one another,
Lying to them with all your energy,
So show me lover's screaming at each other,
Least it's showing me something I can see.You will be discover it's one or it's the other,
Lying to them, yeah which way will it be,
Don't say it's broken, yeah please don't say it's broken,
Just show me something I know I can't believe.(Oh oh oh, oh oh oh, oh oh, x3)Do you remember when we use to sit for hours we'd put the days away...
