

Enough

Homeboy Sandman

Boy Sand running with scissors
Spread peace and love to brothers and sisters
Maintain during heat waves and blizzards
Tell cats the deal with zeal and vigor
Wiz kid amongst magi and wizards
More than enough, guts and gizzards
It is evident props I deserve
Think the president is half lizard
Long way from the basement with Big Tigger
No Vietcong ever called me nigger
This is not pop even though it's popular
That's until God stop my ticker
Ho ho ho, Kwanzaa and Hanukkah
School of Hard Knocks head hall monitor
This boy not for Brandy or Monica
Stevie caught harm on the harmonica
I represent a brand new species
Run up on your windshield with brand new squeegees
Type of champ make you think I eat mad Wheaties
Type of flow make you think I drink mad Fiji
I don't know Mercedes from Mitsubishi
I don't mess with ol' girl, she dress to shi-shi
Brands be on the tip but the ish so cheesy
Staples button ish
Make ish look easy
Enough
Come your highness, they await you
Pardon my slick talk rap turrets
Mind like a steel trap
Open as a milk crate
Eloquent elephant that never forgets
Ever since my congress with cassettes
From the moment you senate to my house of reps
I feel a buster get so upset when I lay down the law on bills at the steps
Capital J
Always been the constant
Consonant
Consistent, concrete
Drop shit like I'm incontinent

Hot shit on every continent
"Good grief"
My favorite compliment
Good tea, my only supplement
Appreciate all my property
Nothing stopping me when I up the rent
My cure for things that I can't prevent
First I vent, then I circumvent
No need to throw softball underhand
This is Alice in Chains live from wonderland
God damn
Louder, clap your hands
To what he's doing
On tempo jack
Steal the show and engage the lowjack
I know it's a trap car, I'll bring it right back
Enough On the mantle
Blowing out the candle
Whew
Drunk holy man, no sandals
See him as he wanders
Everything he squanders
Recognized by old break dance graffiti bombers
Bag full of pain
Still dance in the rain
Way short on the credit
Damn it's a shame
Clown with a smile still enhancing the game
Laugh like a mufucka
Back, entertain
Beyond the humane, seen the light bearer
Caught a sensation like he's staring in the mirror
Still doesn't get it, can I write it any clearer?
Get your popcorn as the night gets near
And once the sun comes back
Plainer than day, he never faked one jack
They pushed the panic button something like a thumbtack
In fact, needless to say man that shit was dumb whack
Right off the coast, you could feel it like the breeze
So brand new to leave your mind at ease
Worse than drugs yeah stress is a disease
So far gone, never find me please
Email the storm and cc'ing the night
Them boys way on when they're rocking this mic
Homeboy Sandman

Kurious carnage
Paving the way
C'mon cease with the garbage
Enough
