The Funny Bird

Mercury Rev

Well, goodbye Southern spy
I've come to love you in the light
Always staring in the void
Have your eyes all been destroyed?
All these digging little hands
Of all the stones that never landYou're the only one I knowFarewell golden ring
Oh, you hollow little thing
Like a wave along the coast
I've come to love the highs and lows
'Cause in the end you're just a band
A funny bird that never landsAnd you're the only one I knowFarewell golden sound
No one wants to hear you now
And of all the happy ends
I wouldn't wish this on a friendYou're the only one I know
