

Pride

HÃ¼sker DÃ¼

Why did you back me into a corner?
I didn't meant it, it was just an act
My friend's outside, can't he come in?
And everybody else

Stupid pride, selfish people, stupid pride
Why does everybody have to be like that?
Out, just an act, his parents love him
But they send him money but he won't come back
No reaction, no response, forget him, just forget him
